History of the Delaware Police Chiefs' Foundation

The Foundation was established and incorporated in September of 1983 through the efforts of the Delaware Police Chiefs' Council, Inc. It is the country's only law enforcements foundation connected with a state association of chiefs of police whose membership is restricted to police chief executives and whose activities are limited to police agency improvement. Under Section 501 (c) 3 of the Internal Revenue it is exempt from Federal Income Tax.

Affairs of the Council are governed by a Board of Trustees of thirty-six persons comprised of public members and including both active and retired police chief executives.

Participants must be present at awards dinner for all prizes and raffles including money for the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place teams.

Delaware Police Chiefs Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization
